Dudley Shumate has been living with and training dogs of various breeds—including Cocker Spaniels, Standard Poodles, and now Border Collies—for over 20 years. Border Collies Maverick, Sweet, Jack and Bird have been on IFCS and WAO USA world teams multiple times each, and have all medaled.

- Jack also competed for AKC USA team at the 2013 European Open and made the finals. Sweet won the 2013 AKC National Championship 20" division with over 400 dogs in her height class and the 2015 UKI US Open National Championship in the 16" Preferred class.
 - Youngster Bird is following in their paw steps with two wins and a silver medal at the 2013 UKI US Open and her most recent win of Round 2 at the 2016 UKI US Open National Championships.
 - Bird was also a member of the winning 2014 USDAA Dog Agility Masters national championship team as well as on the USA team for the 2014 European Open and 2015 IFCS.
 - She has additionally won spots on the European Open and WAO 2016 world teams! Rescue Phoebe of "5 Minutes" Facebook fame just won a class at her first-ever regionals!
 - Baby of the family TastyKake at 6 months already has an online class under her collar as well as an exciting puppy training DVD published by Clean Run!
- Before dogs, Dudley was an avid horse trainer and three-day event competitor. She lives on a farm near Winston-Salem, North Carolina when she isn't trailing or teaching seminars all over the country."
